

- (1) Which of these Prime Ministers lived to be the oldest: Winston Churchill, Harold Wilson or Margaret Thatcher?
Winston Churchill.
- (2) What award did Van Morrison receive in the 2015 Birthday Honours list?
Knighthood.
- (3) What does the word 'lugubrious' mean: sad, slow or lazy?
Sad.
- (4) The River Congo flows into what ocean?
Atlantic.
- (5) Which hotelier said "The customer is never wrong": Charles Forte, Conrad Hilton or César Ritz?
César Ritz.
- (6) In the TV series 'Gavin and Stacey' what is Smithy's first name?
Neil.
- (7) What kind of creature is a corvid: bird, fish or insect?
Bird. (Crow)
- (8) 'Barwick Green' is the theme tune to what radio programme?
The Archers.
- (9) Which of these types of potato has a reddish-pink skin: Desiree, Estima or Marfona?
Desiree.
- (10) In the 1971 film 'Get Carter', what is Carter's first name?
Jack.

- (11) Which of these Prime Ministers served for the longest time: Arthur Balfour, Stanley Baldwin or Tony Blair?
Tony Blair.
- (12) Most blowtorches used for cooking are fuelled by butane and what other gas?
Propane.
- (13) At Wimbledon, what is the official name of the grassy bank known as Henman Hill or Murray Mount: Ayers Promenade, Aorangi Terrace or Ontario Green?
Aorangi Terrace.
- (14) What tyre company is named after the man who patented the vulcanised rubber process?
Goodyear.
- (15) Which of these cocktails contains ginger: Tom Collins, Moby Dick or Prince Harry?
Prince Harry.
- (16) In 1922, Laurence of Arabia joined which of the armed services?
RAF.
- (17) The US writer Alexander Woolcott said: "All the things I really like to do are either immoral, illegal, or..." what: fattening, insane or expensive?
Fattening.
- (18) What colour is the cross on the Jamaican flag?
Yellow.
- (19) The name of which video games company means 'to hit the target' in Japanese: Atari, Nintendo or Sega?
Atari.
- (20) In an alphabetical list, name the first ten, one-word name English counties that end with the letters 'SHIRE'?
Bedfordshire, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Cambridgeshire, Cheshire, Derbyshire, Gloucestershire, Hampshire, Herefordshire & Hertfordshire.

(21) Which Greek god wore winged sandals?

Hermes.

(22) The title of what 2015 film means 'a person returned from the dead'?

The Revenant.

(23) What facial feature can be described as Roman?

Nose.

(24) What year was the title of a hit single by 'Busted'?

3,000.

(25) A bronze bust of who was unveiled in the Falklands in January 2015?

Margaret Thatcher.

(26) What word means a type of publication and a place for storing ammunition?

Magazine.

(27) What town was the childhood home of 'Superman'?

Smallville.

(28) Geri Halliwell sang 'It's Raining Men' on what film soundtrack?

Bridget Jones's Diary.

(29) What car company was originally established in 1937 by the German Labour Front?

Volkswagen.

(30) What does the 'F' stand for in a 'GIF' image?

Format.

- (31) In the Old Testament of the King James Bible, what is the first book named after a person: Joshua, Ruth or Ezra?
Joshua.
- (32) Which historic county was given royal status in 1957?
Berkshire.
- (33) Which of these cities is NOT the setting for a Shakespeare play: Valencia, Verona or Vienna?
Valencia.
- (34) What 1980 drama revolved around women in a Japanese internment camp?
Tenko.
- (35) Raymond-Brooks Ward was a famous commentator in which sport: show jumping, horse racing or tennis?
Show jumping.
- (36) What two mammals have species called Sumatran?
Tiger and rhino.
- (37) Princess Estelle and Prince Oscar are members of the royal family of which country: Spain, Netherlands or Sweden?
Sweden.
- (38) The Naze is a headland that protrudes into what sea?
North Sea.
- (39) What is the name of the current geological period: Triassic, Permian or Quaternary?
Quaternary.
- (40) Name the ten different creatures listed as food marine and animal marine in the emoji list in Sept 2020?
Crab, dolphin, fish, lobster, octopus, oyster, shark, shrimp, squid & whale.