

(1) In 2014, Lincoln Red Imps became the first representatives in the UEFA Champions League from where: Jersey, Isles of Scilly or Gibraltar?

Gibraltar.

(2) The RMS Carpathia belonged to what cruise line?

Cunard.

(3) 'Ponophobia' is the fear of what: beards, sneezing or overworking?

Overworking.

(4) 'Mr Fitness' was the nickname of which South African golfer?

Gary Player.

(5) Rocksteady and Bebop were villainous henchmen in what cartoon series: Inspector Gadget, Teenage Mutant Hero Turtles or SeperTed?

Teenage Mutant Hero Turtles.

(6) The battle of Bosworth Field took place in what month of 1485?

August.

(7) When referring to markings on the skin, the word 'tattoo' originates from what part of the world: Amazonia, Polynesia or Australasia?

Polynesia.

(8) Which South American country knocked England out of the 1998 World Cup Finals?

Argentina.

(9) The male singer in the group 'Boney M' Bobby Farrell died in which city: St Petersburg, Moscow or Vladivostok?

St Petersburg. (The same city that Rasputin died in)

(10) What company makes Copa Mundail football boots?

Adidas.

- (11) Tybalt is a cousin of which Shakespeare title character: Cleopatra, Juliet or Cressida?
Juliet.
- (12) What is the age of criminal responsibility in England and Wales?
Ten.
- (13) The National Diet is the Parliament of what country: Germany, Mexico or Japan?
Japan.
- (14) Which famous actor played the goalkeeper in the film 'Escape to Victory'?
Sylvester Stallone.
- (15) Which of these diacritic marks goes below the letter: circumflex, tilde, or cedilla?
Cedilla.
- (16) The aftershave 'Hi Karate' was first launched in what decade?
1960s.
- (17) Which of these traditional measures for beer is the biggest: butt, firkin or tun?
Tun.
- (18) Who managed the England football team for one game in 2012?
Stuart Pearce.
- (19) In the 'Star Wars' series, Theed is the capital of what planet: Hoth, Naboo or Tatoonie?
Naboo.
- (20) Name the first ten National Parks to be designated in the UK?
Peak District, Lake District, Snowdonia, Dartmoor, Pembrokeshire Coast, North York Moors, Yorkshire Dales, Exmoor, Northumberland & Brecon Beacons.

(21) Radar is the fire station dog in what TV programme?

Fire Man Sam.

(22) What religion is represented by the yellow on the flag of Sri Lanka?

Buddhism.

(23) On 'Blue Peter' what type of animals were 'Willow and 'Smudge'?

Cats.

(24) In what century was 'Vogue Magazine' founded?

19th.

(25) What period followed the Stone Age?

Bronze Age.

(26) What TV puppet is based on the actor Terry Thomas?

Basil Brush.

(27) Which UK TV channel had the first breakfast TV programme in 1983?

BBC1.

(28) What letter of the alphabet is used on registration plates for vehicles whose age or identity is in doubt?

Q.

(29) The rapper 50 Cent was born in what American city?

New York.

(30) Reopened in 2015, Dreamland Amusement park is in what seaside town?

Margate.

- (31) An angel cake is missing what traditional baking ingredient: sugar, flour or egg yolks?
Egg yolks.
- (32) What was Joseph Stalin's first language?
Georgian.
- (33) What is collected and stored in a 'Leyden jar': gas, water or electricity?
Electricity.
- (34) How many South American countries do NOT border Brazil?
Two. (Ecuador & Chile)
- (35) The US state capitals of Nebraska and Wisconsin are named after what: presidents, rivers or mountains?
Presidents.
- (36) Which actress is mentioned in the first verse of the Mark Ronson hit single 'Uptown Funk'?
Michelle Pfeiffer.
- (37) Which Midlands team was the first in England to have an all-seater stadium: Aston Villa, Nottingham Forest or Coventry City?
Coventry City.
- (38) In 2016, 'The Tent of Dreams' featured in what TV show?
The Great British Bake Off
- (39) In 1813, which painter built Sandycombe Lodge in Twickenham as a country retreat for himself and his father: John Constable, Joshua Reynolds or JMW Turner?
JMW Turner.
- (40) In an alphabetical list of chemical elements, name the first ten that do NOT end in the letter 'M'?
Antimony, argon, arsenic, astatine, bismuth, boron, bromine, carbon, chlorine & cobalt.