

- (1) Who was the last Roman Catholic King of England: Henry VIII, James II or George IV?
James II.
- (2) Who played Miss Daisy in the film 'Driving Miss Daisy'?
Jessica Tandy.
- (3) 10236 Charing Cross Road in Holmby Hills is the address of which famous house: The Playboy Mansion, Graceland or Camp David Retreat?
The Playboy Mansion.
- (4) Hawthorn blossom is named after what month of the year?
May.
- (5) Where in the human body is the talocrural joint: ankle, hip or neck?
Ankle.
- (6) The name of which Japanese car manufacture is partly derived from an ancient Persian god of wisdom worshiped by Zoroastrians?
Mazda.
- (7) Which of these fictional locations appeared in print first: Narnia, Neverland or Navarone?
Neverland.
- (8) The word pixel is an abbreviation of pictures and what other word?
Element.
- (9) Matilda was the mother of which English king: Richard II, Henry II or Edward II?
Henry II.
- (10) Haneda and Narita airports serve which Asian capital city?
Tokyo.

- (11) Which of these Austrian composers was born first: Mahler, Mozart or Schubert?
Mozart.
- (12) The surname of which film director born in 1946 can be translated literally as 'Clay Mountain' or 'Game Mountain'?
Spielberg.
- (13) Tomatoes are attributed to what ancient civilisation: Aztec, Roman or Egyptian?
Aztec.
- (14) What four-word phrase that refers to the return to the starting point, has been claimed variously to be derived from radio football commentary, hop scotch or the board game snakes & ladders, among other possibilities?
Back to square one.
- (15) Which of these words scores most on a UK Scrabble board: triple, letter or score?
Triple. (8, 'P' worth 3 points)
- (16) In the awarding winning historical TV series 'Wolf Hall', which actor played King Henry VIII?
Damien Lewis.
- (17) In what Central American country is the currency named after the national bird: Guatemala, Panama or Costa Rica?
Guatemala. (Quetzal)
- (18) Which amendment to the US Constitution ratified in 1865 formally abolished slavery?
13th.
- (19) Sir Charles Barry was the chief architect of which London landmark: Westminster Abbey, St Paul's Cathedral or Palace of Westminster?
Palace of Westminster.
- (20) Name the first ten letters in the classical Greek alphabet?
Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, Zeta, Eta, Theta, Iota & Kappa.

(21) The 2015 album by Coldplay is entitled 'Head Full of...' what?

Dreams.

(22) What number is represented by the Roman numerals LV?

55.

(23) Before founding Methodism, John & Charles Wesley were members of what church?

Church of England.

(24) In the 'Wombles', who did the cooking?

Madame Cholet.

(25) The economics think-tank the IFS is the 'Institute for... what'?

Fiscal Studies.

(26) According to the Bible, God created humans on which day?

Sixth.

(27) Which female singer featured on the Coldplay hit 'Hymn for the Weekend'?

Beyoncé.

(28) In the manufacture of cutlery, the abbreviation EPNS stands for Electro Plated Nickel what...?

Silver.

(29) The tragus is a fleshy piece of cartilage on which pair of organs of the body?

Ear.

(30) An agreement in 1959 fixed the date of the annual Lord Mayor's Show in the city of London as the second Saturday in which month?

November.

- (31) Footballer Phil Neville was an England Under-15 captain at what sport: cricket, hockey or rugby league?
Cricket.
- (32) The Suffolk Punch is a breed of what animal?
Horse.
- (33) In a famously gruesome 1820s painting by Goya, which Roman god is 'Devouring One of his Sons': Jupiter, Mars or Saturn?
Saturn.
- (34) The only daughter of Princess Margaret born on 1st May 1964, was given what first name?
Lady Sarah Chatto.
- (35) In 1994, what two teams played in the only FIFA World Cup Final to end in a nil-nil draw: Brazil & Italy, Italy & France or France & Brazil?
Brazil & Italy.
- (36) Which fish is the main ingredient of the Nordic dish 'gravlax'?
Salmon.
- (37) Who was the first sitting MP to appear on a reality TV show: Nadine Dorries, George Galloway or Lembit Opik?
George Galloway.
- (38) Although the pronunciations may differ, which fruit is known in more than a dozen European languages by a word spelt 'A-N-A-N-A-S'?
Pineapple.
- (39) Which of these creatures is NOT a bird: woodcreeper, woodchat or woodchuck?
Woodchuck.
- (40) Name the first ten US states alphabetically (Letters A to G inclusive)?
Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida & Georgia.