

(1) What did Humphry Repton develop for Longleat and Woburn Abbey: landscape gardens, guided tours or safari parks?

Landscape gardens.

(2) The Queen had her personal account with what bank?

Coutts.

(3) Which of these is a British dessert: cabinet pudding, cupboard pudding or larder pudding?

Cabinet pudding.

(4) Oliver and Richard Cromwell were both born in what town?

Huntington.

(5) How many points does the word 'BOARD' score in Scrabble: 8, 9 or 10?

Eight.

(6) In medicine, stress, simple and greenstick are types of what?

Fracture.

(7) In 2001, which team lost to Australia 31-0 in the worst ever defeat in an international football match: Bhutan, American Samoa or Montserrat?

American Samoa.

(8) What word goes before 'Joe', 'Jude' and 'Yah' in the titles of three music hits?

Hey.

(9) In the film 'Batman Returns', which villain plots to become mayor: The Riddler, The Joker or The Penguin?

The Penguin.

(10) In the publishing world what do the letters 'YA', as in YA fiction?

Young Adult.

- (11) The first Royal Variety Performance was in which decade: 1910s, 1920s or 1930s?
1910s.
- (12) Which type of meat takes its name from the Latin 'to hunt'?
Venison.
- (13) The horror writer James Herbert's first novel had what title: The Fog, The Rats or The Living Dead?
The Rats.
- (14) In 2016, the BBC building that is home to Radio 2, changed its name from Western House to what?
Wogan House.
- (15) Which British royal popularised the Fair Isle knit: George III, Edward VIII or Elizabeth II?
Edward VIII.
- (16) In the English language, the word glossal refers to what muscular organ of the body?
Tongue. (From the Greek glossa)
- (17) In terms of area, which is the smallest of Australia's mainland states: Western Australia, Queensland or Victoria?
Victoria.
- (18) In maths, what number can be expressed as ten to the power of six?
One million.
- (19) The old alcohol measure, a noggin, was roughly equal to what volume of liquid: quarter of a pint, half a pint or a pint and a half?
Quarter of a pint.
- (20) Name the ten highest tea-producing in Asia?
China, India, Sri Lanka, Vietnam, Turkey, Indonesia, Myanmar, Iran, Bangladesh & Japan.

(21) In the 'Star Wars' films, what colour is Yoda's lightsaber?

Green.

(22) Which is the only US President whose surname starts and ends in a vowel?

Obama.

(23) What Canadian province is named after a son of King George III?

Prince Edward Island.

(24) In the shipping forecast, which feature of the prevailing conditions is described as good, poor or very poor?

Visibility.

(25) In which organ of the human body would you find the tricuspid valve?

Heart.

(26) The name of a huge anticyclonic circulation system or storm on Jupiter, is sometimes abbreviated to the initials 'GRS', what does this stand for?

Great Red Spot.

(27) The alternative practice of applying a deep massage to particular points on the hands or feet to treat conditions relating to internal organs, is usually known by what name?

Reflexology.

(28) The Lockheed-C130 military transport plane became known by what nickname, also the Roman name of a character in Greek mythology?

Hercules.

(29) The first bubble-gum produced in 1928 was what colour?

Pink.

(30) What is the Italian word for wine?

Vino.

- (31) Which US state joined the Union in 1912 along with Arizona: New Hampshire, New Jersey or New Mexico?
New Mexico.
- (32) Which king adopted the name Windsor as the official name of the British royal family?
George V.
- (33) Which character has been described as "The poor man's Sherlock Holmes": Dick Barton, Simon Templar or Sexton Blake?
Sexton Blake.
- (34) What instrument did the bandleader Glenn Miller play?
Trombone.
- (35) Which footballing Ferdinand is the oldest: Les, Rio or Anton?
Les.
- (36) What word describes someone who is odd or whimsical and the orbit of a planet that is elliptical and deviates from a perfect circle?
Eccentric.
- (37) In which country in 2016 is it legal to sell your kidneys: France, Japan or Iran?
Iran.
- (38) Who did Edward Chapman play in the Norman Wisdom film 'A Stitch In Time'?
Mr Grimsdale.
- (39) Which Roald Dahl novel features the magic potion 'Formula 86 Delayed Action Mouse-Maker': The BFG, The Twits or The Witches?
The Witches.
- (40) According to the Royal Mail in 2018, name the ten most common flowers used in UK addresses (flowers that are in the names of homes and streets)?
Rose, primrose, heather, jasmine, lilac, lavender, magnolia, honeysuckle, daisy & mayflower.