

- (1) What does the Scottish name 'Craig' mean: valley, forest or rock?
Rock.
- (2) Who kills the title character in Shakespeare's Macbeth?
Macduff.
- (3) Godwin's Law states that as an online debate gets longer, someone or something will be compared to who: Adolf Hitler, Julius Caesar or Napoleon Bonaparte?
Adolf Hitler.
- (4) What was the first complete car designed by Alex Issigonis?
Morris Minor.
- (5) Who became the youngest actor to be awarded a knighthood, receiving the honour in 1947 at the age of 40: Alec Guinness, Laurence Olivier or John Gielgud?
Laurence Olivier.
- (6) Which member of the Jackson family had a hit with the song 'Runaway'?
Janet.
- (7) Which of these sitcoms appeared on TV first: Black Books, Green Wing or Red Dwarf?
Red Dwarf.
- (8) What was the capital of the Byzantine Empire?
Constantinople or Byzantium.
- (9) George Orwell was born in what country: India, Canada or South Africa?
India.
- (10) The Channel 4 series 'The Jump' was filmed in what country?
Austria.

- (11) Which Beatrix Potter character lost most of his tail fighting an owl: Jeremy Fisher, Peter Rabbit or Squirrel Nutkin?
Squirrel Nutkin.
- (12) Which retailer was originally called Mallard Furniture Industries?
MFI.
- (13) Which of these European currencies has NOT been replaced by the Euro: Schilling, Tolar or Forint?
Forint.
- (14) In the 13th century what was the world's largest empire by land area?
Mongol.
- (15) Doing so at 47, which tennis player is the oldest woman to have won a professional singles match in the Open era: Martina Navratilova, Billie Jean King or Margaret Court?
Martina Navratilova.
- (16) 'Spearfish' is another name for what large sea fish?
Marlin.
- (17) Artist John Singer Sargent is most famous for what type of painting: landscapes, seascapes or portraits?
Portraits.
- (18) What European language is a form of Arabic mixed with Italian?
Maltese.
- (19) Which Roman emperor was the last direct descendant of Augustus: Claudius, Nero or Caligula?
Nero.
- (20) Name the ten countries that France exported the most Champagne to in 2021? (75cl bottles)
United Kingdom, United States, Japan, Germany, Belgium, Australia, Italy, Switzerland, Spain & Sweden.

- (21) Australia's third largest-island is named after what native animal?
Kangaroo.
- (22) Which bell was heard for the first time in London in July 1859?
Big Ben.
- (23) Trento is a city in the north of what European country?
Italy.
- (24) Which Japanese car manufacture is named after a god of light?
Mazda.
- (25) David Ike was briefly a spokesman for what political party?
Green Party.
- (26) What NFL American football team has the initials GBP?
Green Bay Packers.
- (27) In 2016, Shannon Foudy became the one-millionth person to finish what sporting event?
London Marathon.
- (28) What seven letter word means a short story told by Jesus in the Bible?
Parable.
- (29) Which Shakespearean prince says "I must be cruel only to be kind"?
Hamlet.
- (30) On a DVD remote control what shape is the stop symbol?
Square.

(31) Yeast tablets provide which vitamin: A, B1 or C?

B1.

(32) What Japanese company began making its 'Databank Digital Watches' in the 1980s?

Casio.

(33) 'The Card Players' is a series of works by which Post-Impressionist painter: Cézanne, Gauguin or Matisse?

Cézanne.

(34) In what decade were the Margaret Thatcher gates installed at the entrance to Downing Street?

1980s (1989).

(35) Which of these is a traditional ingredient of a salade Niçoise: olives, spring onions or mushrooms?

Olives.

(36) Outlaw Ned Kelly's famous armour is housed in which Australian State Library?

Victoria.

(38) Which planet in the Solar system has 14 known moons?

Neptune.

(37) Which medieval traders dealt in silks, velvets and other fine materials: bowyers, mercers or lorimers?

Mercers.

(39) What is the young of a skunk called: foal, joey or kit?

Kit.

(40) Name the last ten spaces on a London Monopoly board (So ANY space after Piccadilly and before Go, going clockwise)?

Go to jail, Regent St, Oxford St, Community Chest, Bond St, Liverpool St Station, Chance, Park Lane, Super Tax & Mayfair