

- (1) Which of these radio programmes started during the Second World War: Woman's Hour, The Archers or Desert Island Discs?

Desert Island Discs.

- (2) Who baked the cake of the cover of the Rolling Stones album 'Let It Bleed'?

Delia Smith.

- (3) Which of these animals is NOT a member of the cat family: Ocelot, Oryx or Ounce?

Oryx.

- (4) What word for a striped cat originally referred to a suburb of Bagdad?

Tabby.

- (5) Which of these rulers is thought to have had more wives than Henry VIII: Ivan the Terrible, Louis XIV or Lorenzo the Magnificent?

Ivan the Terrible.

- (6) Who was the UK PM when John F. Kennedy was assassinated?

Alec Douglas Hume.

- (7) Rarotonga is the most populous island of which group: Cook Islands, Galapagos Islands or Canary Islands?

Cook Islands.

- (8) What famous English painting was first exhibited under the title 'Landscape at Noon'?

The Haywain.

- (9) In the night sky, the star Betelgeuse represents which part of the figure of Orion: his right shoulder, his left knee or his nose?

His right shoulder.

- (10) Which Scottish singer of the 60s had the surname Leitch?

Donavan.

- (11) Which of these films did Alfred Hitchcock make first: Rebecca, Rear Window or Rope?
Rebecca.
- (12) In the 1992 US Election campaign, George Bush Senior while seeking re-election, said that American families should be less like 'The Simpsons' and more like what other TV family?
The Waltons.
- (13) The Nishan Sahib is a triangular flag that is flown outside places of worship in which religion: Buddhism, Judaism or Sikhism?
Sikhism.
- (14) Which king was the father of Good Queen Bess?
Henry VIII.
- (15) Twycross Zoo in the Midlands started by specialising in keeping what group of animals: birds, felines or primates?
Primates.
- (16) The US crime drama 'CSI', used songs by which group as the theme tunes for its series set in Las Vegas, New York and Miami?
The Who.
- (17) Which pop music TV programme claimed "The weekend starts here": Ready Steady Go!, The Six-Five Special or Oh Boy!?
Ready Steady Go!
- (18) In 1994, which company became the first sponsor of the FA Cup?
Littlewoods.
- (19) The Lost Gardens of Heligan are the sister attraction to what Cornish tourist destination: Eden Project, Tintagel Castle or St Michael's Mount?
Eden Project.
- (20) Name the first ten one-word countries alphabetically after Nigeria that end in the letter 'A'?
Panama, Romania, Russia, Rwanda, Samoa, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Somalia & Syria.

(21) What European country has a name meaning eastern kingdom?

Austria.

(22) Venice is the burial place of which apostle?

Mark.

(23) What arteries supply blood to the lungs?

Pulmonary.

(24) In which country was the actress Greta Garbo born?

Sweden.

(25) In the US, whom was Senator McCarthy trying to identify in his "witch-hunts"?

Communists.

(26) With which industry is the Royal Smithfield Show concerned?

Farming/agriculture.

(27) In the TV show 'Dragon's Den' contestants stand in front of how many dragons?

Five.

(28) Who did Andy Murray lose to in the Wimbledon Men's Singles Final of 2012?

Roger Federer.

(29) In 2016, which band became the first to headline on the Pyramid Stage at Glastonbury for a record fourth time, having done so previously in 2002, 2005 and 2011?

Coldplay.

(30) Clayton Moor played which masked character on TV?

The Lone Ranger.

- (31) 'The Harmonious Blacksmith' is a work by which composer: Delius, Handel or Elgar?
Handel.
- (32) Whereas the Archbishop of Canterbury has the title the Primate of All England, the holder of what post in the C of E is simply Primate of England?
Archbishop of York.
- (33) How old was Clive Dunn when he began playing Lance Corporal Jones in 'Dad's Army': 38, 48 or 58?
48.
- (34) What name that literally means 'Japanese cow', is given to the high quality beef obtained from particular strains of cattle?
Wagyu.
- (35) What type of hat do the men wear in the René Magritte work 'The Mysteries of the Horizon': bowler, top hat or fez?
Bowler.
- (36) The adjective 'lusophone' denotes a country or person speaking which European language?
Portuguese.
- (37) In what sequence of numbers is the next one the sum of the previous two: Fibonacci, Perfect or Triangular?
Fibonacci.
- (38) Which of the Nobel gasses and the second most abundant in the universe is used as a cooling medium for the large hadron collider?
Helium.
- (39) In Japan, 'Nigiri' and 'Chirashi' are types of what: models of car, costume or sushi?
Sushi.
- (40) Name the last ten solo artists to perform a main theme song of an official James Bond film up to and including the 25th film?
Billie Eilish, Sam Smith, Adele, Chris Cornell, Madonna, Sheryl Crow, Tina Turner, Gladys Knight, Rita Coolidge & Sheena Easton.